NUIX USG

ABOUT NUIX USG

Nuix was built to understand the DNA of data at an enormous scale. Armed and ready, our software pinpoints the most relevant information U.S. state, local and federal government agencies, law enforcement, regulatory and counterterrorism bodies need to help them anticipate and act on investigative, cybersecurity, eDiscovery, risk and compliance threats.

Our intuitive platform guides you to identify critical connections between people, objects, locations and events – giving you real-time clarity, control and efficiency to gain a broad perspective and discover the truth.

The Nuix team brings together industry expertise in disciplines including cybersecurity, law enforcement, digital forensics, investigation, eDiscovery and information governance across a wide variety of industries and around the world.

At Nuix, we always keep an eye on the future, continually innovating to solve the complex challenges U.S. Government agencies face today and to help you anticipate what's next.
